Fishing Poll

"Forget about the politics of community or the strategy of activism or the virtue of democracy – from a business perspective, the fish of multiplicity on the left, once killed and butchered, represents numerous sales and, thusly, will provide a greater profit margin and more dividends to shareholders than the single fish on the right, proving that the best way to grow an economy is through the commodification of more and more victims of capitalism and fewer and fewer constraints put on the appetite of the custodians."

Mr Fish
